The Blessing of To-Day.

Strange, we never prize the music Till the sweet-voiced birds have flown ; Strange that we should slight the violets Till the lovely flowers are gone;

- Strange that summer skies and sunshine Never soom one half so fair
- As when winter's snowy pinions
- . Shake the white down in the air !
- Lips from which the seal of silence None but God can roll away, Never blossomed of such beauty
- As a forms the mouth to-day : And sweet words that freight our memory
- With their beautiful perfume, Come to us in sweeter accents
- Through the portals of the tomb.
- Let us gather up the sunbeams Lying all around our path ;
- Let us keep the wheat and roses, Casting out the thorns and chaff;
- Let us find our aweetest comfort In the blessings of the day, With a patient hand removing

All the briefs from our way. VARIETY.

Japanese editors are allowed to carry swords, and a common man has to take off his hat to them. ROSTRUMS .- A waggish philanthropist suggests rostrums in the ocean-for whales to spout from. This is a want long felt, he affirms.

United.-In Detroit a one-armed man and a one-armed woman have rushed into each other's arm and been united for life.

Confusen.-Said a woman who tumbled out of confused, but when I struck the pavement I knew where I was."

ONLY TWELVE .- Carl Vogt argues that Adam was a monkey before Eve was created, because a gorilla has thirteen ribs and man only twelve, one having been removed to make woman.

As OFTEN .- Now, tell me, Doolan, truthfully. how often do you go to chapel?" Pat-" Well, now, shure, oi'll tell yer riv'rence the trut'. Faix, I go as often as I can't avoid."

GOOD DOCTRINE .- General Custer listened to a lecture in Duluth on how to save the Indians. He said the doctrine was good for the inside of a church, but no man could practice it on the plains

NEVER LACK.-Those old soakers never lack for arguments. Lately one replied to a temperance lecturer by the following poser: "If water rots the soles of your boots, what effect must it have on the coats of your stomach?"

THEY NEVER CHANGE .- "There is one thing about babies," say a late traveler; "they never change. We have girls of the period, men of the world, but the baby is the same self-possessed, tearless, laughing, voracious little heathen in all ages, and in all countries."

WHAT A DIFFERENCE.-How fast the time flies when you are working against it-how slowly when you are working to fill it up. What a diference between trying to get your work done before your dinner hour, and trying to fill up the hour before dinner without work.

A Good Hir.-A Pennsylvania clergyman has made a good hit by introducing "personals" in his prayers. For instance: "Lord, have mercy on John Shanahan, who keeps a saloon near the old red bridge. Either lay him on a bed of sickness or have him removed from this town.'

NEVER .- A young lady upbraided her admirer for his flirtations during a long absence. "You are too bad to be pardoned," she said, "but if I discard you I shall punish myself most, and so I will ignore what is past and enjoy your society as much as I can while I live, for when I die I shall never see you any more-I am going to heaven.

Twice as Old.—An editor in a neighboring city has been reading one of Dr. Hall's "Health Tracks," in which the doctor proves conclusively that married men live longer than bachelors. This journalist says he don't know how it is, for he has been married three times, and yet he knows

A good mother was trying to explain to a young hopeful the other day about fighting against the devil. After telling the little fellow who the devil was, and how hard he was to successfully resist, he turned round and said: "Mamma, I'd be scared of the old devil, but if I was to come across one of his little devils I'd knock the stuffing out of him."

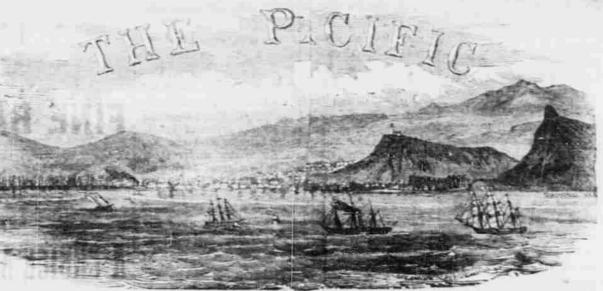

-Woman's Weaknesses .- A colored philosopher thus unburdened himself on one of woman's weaknesses: "Jim, de men don't make such fools of demselves about women as de women do about men. If women looks at de moon, dey see a man in it. If dey hear a mouse nibbling, it's a man; and dey all look under de bed de first thing at night to find a man. Why, I nebber look under my bed to find a woman; does you?"

WHICH ?- A Maine student held the following colloquy with the professor of chemistry the other "How do you account," asked the professor, "for the fact that snow doesn't melt on the tops of the mountains?" "I think it is because there are no clouds above them." "That is your theory, is it?" "Yes sir." "Well, sir, will you inform us how the snow came there, in the first place; did it come down or go up?" The student is still reflecting.

His Business .- As a spiritual scance the other day, says the Reese River Reveille, we heard a seedy-looking individual discoursing to a friend on his relations in the States: "Why," said he, "the old man's rich; the old woman's got 'soap' in her own right, and every 'door-burned' one of my sisters and brothers, aunts, uncles and cousins are just lousy with coin. If I'd go home, I wouldn't have to do ne'er a lick of work on the green earth—just lay back and take things easy; bet yer life. We asked a friend at our elbow what business the speaker was engaged in, thinking he might be some wealthy rancher, and the answer was: "Herding horses for his gruh."

"HUMBUG."-The word "humbug," DeQuincy, rests upon a very rich and comprehensive basis; it cannot be rendered adequately either by German or by Greek, the two richest of human languages. Itsorigin, however, is wrapped in doubt, the stories concerning it being vague and uncertain. The following is regarded as the most trustworthy: At one time there was a war between Germany and Austria, and constantly the wildest and incredible stories concerning the victory or defeat of the German arms would be spread, entirely without truth. They were all traced to Hamburg; so, whenever anything was announced, men would say: "Oh! that is a "Hamburg," and finally a "humbug."

A man about 40 years old and a woman seemingly 70 years of age were at the Detroit and Milwaukee station yesterday, waiting for a train, when the man strolled out on the dock and caught sight of one of the city life preservers hanging to its hook. He asked what it was, and a laborer told him, and then he asked: "How long will it preserve a fellow's life?" The man told him a hundred years, and the information staggered the stranger. Walking around a few minutes as if meditating, he stepped to his informant and said: "See here, stranger, I'll take of one of them preservers, and if it wouldn't be askin' too much of you, I'd like to have you tell the old woman in there that you haven't another one for sale, and that the machine which made 'em has busted.' - Detroit Free Press.

KEALAKEKUA BAY HAWAH. THE HAWAHAN ISLANDS ARE climate. Certain localities in the group are espec-ially favored in this way .- The District of Kons, on the leeward site of Hawaii, has long been famed as a place of resort for invalids with bronchital, or lung diseases. With its pure and mild atmosphere, with its absolute freedom from storms or high winds, with its porous soil which, with all its rich vegetation, retains no dampness and yields no malaria, and with an unvarying temperature—that of the American or Southern European June—ALL THE YEAR ROUND, the climate of Kena is one of the healthiest and most tuxurious on The undersigned, at his house at Kanwalon, a house une maled in the district for size, cleanliness, commodiousne and thoroughness of furnishing, is prepared to give boarders attent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet at the low rate of $ 5.00 per week.
